Roselawn Community Council General Board Policies

The Roselawn Community Council Board of Trustees and Officers have been working with Elizabeth Bartley of Invest In Neighborhoods to update our policies. Our Responsibility as Board Residents has been updated. This was read to inform the community of the expectation of any person that might be interested in running for trustee as well as a tool for the success of the community council moving forward.

Elections

There will be an election of trustees and at the June 8th 2023 meeting. Proof of Resident will be required to vote. The membership committee was asking members at the meeting to provide their proof of residency now to get a head start of proof.

Neighborhood Support Program

NSP is the acronym for Neighborhood Support Program. For Year 2023 the amount of $ 9,872 per Council with expenditures deadline of January 14, 2024. The NSP Proposal Form with the proposed projects and budget was presented at the general meeting. There were hard copies provided and each line item was read for clarity. There was a vote of the membership and all present to accept the budget. The budget passed without any nays.

Roselawn Day

Roselawn Day by Dohn Community High School has planned a Roselawn Day Family Festival for June 3, 2023(Saturday). This has been brought to both RBA and RCC attention. This event is not a part of our entities. There is a flyer being circulated about the event. The RBA has contacted them about this, not much information was provided by individual answering the call at the school. Ron Mosley, President of RBA will follow up. Carol Smith, Vice President of RCC will send a letter to Dohn. It is the understanding that there has not been any permission or permits granted for the event.

Announcements

Sheri Collins reminded everyone about the Colors of Creativity Block Party. She asked all to take some cards from the table to pass out in the community and a poster if needed.

The June community council meeting will only have presentations from the Cincinnati Police and Fire Department. We will have our elections.

Meeting Adjourned : 8:13pm.
